Adjunct Professor of Business Position

Life Pacific College invites candidates for potential positions teaching as adjunct professors in its Bachelors of Arts in Business Administration program. LPC's program is committed to preparing graduates who see business as a means to carry out the mission of God's kingdom. Successful candidates will have at a minimum an MBA or a master's degree in a field relevant to the program (economics, financial management, accounting, business law, etc.). A terminal degree is preferred. Candidates with specialties in economics or business law will receive immediate attention.

Applications will be accepted continuously throughout the year. Send a letter of interest and curriculum vitae to:

Dr. Michael Salmeier and Dr. Mick Bates

or via email to: ayenney@lifepacific.edu

Application forms will be sent to promising candidates.

Life Pacific College is the historic Bible College of the Foursquare Church. The College maintains a Pentecostal/Charismatic and Wesleyan-Arminian theological stance. Successful candidates must affirm the College's Statement of Faith and adhere to lifestyle expectations of the College. The College complies with federal and state guidelines for nondiscrimination in employment. Women and other under-represented groups are especially encouraged to apply. Fluency in Spanish is a plus.
